

Headline Data English

In English, 95% of all pupils across the school make expected or above expected progress, with 11% of pupils exceeding their expected progress against CASPA comparative data.

In the Primary department 95% of students achieve expected progress or better, with 22% of students exceeding their expected progress against CASPA comparative data.

In the secondary department 96% of students achieve expected progress or better, with 5% of students exceeding their expected progress against CASPA comparative data.

In the Post 16 department 77% of students achieve expected progress or better, with 66% of students exceeding their expected progress, whereby students are expected to achieve 33% of a level per year.

English - Post 16

■ Below expected   ■ Expected   ■ Exceed expected

